Yesterday's Looks*

BY JOY SHERWOOD

When it comes to children's fashion, the spring season is shaping up to be a retrospective of looks from years past. Shades of neon colors recall the brightly lit 1980s. Classic looks evoke a simpler time of backyard picnics and the beach. Graphic tees reflect the music world with album covers of rockers and their accessories. All in all, spring is looking back while also offering a taste of today's modern flair. Here's a sneak peak of what you will find in the stores.

APPLE SEEDS

Don't be inhibited by the stroller lineup at the door, because it's surely worth your time to take a walk into the boutique. Here, you will feel the energy in this season's earthy colors of orange, teal, and brown. One of the shop's big themes will be rock n roll, as seen on dresses emblazoned with old album covers. Screened t-shirts with animals will be popular for boys. Mix-and-match separates will carry the strength from companies such as Appaman, Penguin, and Kit + Lilli. A personal shopper available to direct your wardrobe choices, and gift selections also can be found here. 10 West 25th Street, 212-795-7590, appleseed-snyc.com.
