

Five Little Words - Nicole Perez

December 15, 2012

Today was a beautiful day for the kids to get out and enjoy a day with @themoms at @appleseednyc meeting the creator Jeff Kinney and star of Diary of Wimpy Kid @RobCapron. They answered questions, signed autographs, and Jeff showed the kids how to draw.

The kids split up into different rooms to create bookmarks, or diaries of their own. They also got to enjoy the play area which my kids were extremely happy about.

The treats were provided by Capri Sun, and Earth's Best organic pouch snacks. There was also popcorn.

My kids were so pleased with their autographs. They also loved @appleseednyc. My daughter said she had the best time ever and got to see her friends and meet new ones.

We love all the great events @themoms put together for families. They are awesome. Keep doing what you do mamas!! Till next time!
