

Top 5 Indoor Play Spaces in the US

Groundhog shadow or no shadow, February is a tough month. The kids are getting restless and Spring feels like light years away. Whether you're in a sunny clime or braving a long cold winter, there are a few outstanding indoor play spaces that will help alleviate winter day doldrums. We scoured the country to find the top 5 indoor play spaces.

New York: Apple Seeds: While space is a premium in NYC, Apple Seeds has the corner on all things child friendly. With 15,000 square feet of high end play space, classes, café and even a kids hair salon, little tykes ages 0-5 can cavort to their hearts delight while their parents and nannies sit back and relax. Besides the New York headquarters, Apple Seeds has two locations in Mumbai, India and Dubai, UAE in case you were heading in that direction.
